

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR GREENVILLE CITY FORM R

INDIVIDUALS

WHO SHOULD FILE A RETURN:

A return should be filed by all persons eighteen (18) years of age or older living in Greenville whether any income is earned or any tax is due. Persons who have lived in Greenville only a portion of the tax year must file a return. Income, deductions and credits should be allocated on a pro rata basis if actual income figures are unavailable. Also, persons or entities earning income in Greenville and entities (such as corporations, partnerships, proprietors, etc.) physically located or doing business in Greenville.

WHEN AND WHERE TO FILE RETURN:

File on or before April 15th with the Department of Taxation, 100 Public Square, Greenville, Ohio. In the event the due date falls on a weekend or a legal U.S. holiday, the due date shall be extended until the end of the next business day. All residents must file on a calendar year basis. Total amount due as shown must be paid when the return is filed. Checks or money orders should be made payable to the City of Greenville. All extensions shall be filed with the City of Greenville on or before the due date of the return to avoid late charges. Extensions do not extend the due date for the payment of the tax, hence penalty and interest may be applied to any unpaid tax. (Any taxpayer that has duly requested an automatic six-month extension for filing their federal income tax return shall automatically receive an extension for filing the municipal tax return.)

GREENVILLE CITY INCOME TAX IS LEVIED UPON THE FOLLOWING:

- (A) On all qualifying wages, commissions, other compensation, and other taxable income earned or received by residents of the City of Greenville.
- (B) On all qualifying wages, commissions, other compensation, and other taxable income earned or received by nonresidents for work done, or services performed or rendered in the City of Greenville.
- (C) Income from Schedules C, E & F, partnerships, estates, trusts, fees, prizes, etc., the losses of which may be carried forward for three (3) years, but may not be offset against W-2 income.
- (D) On all income received as gambling winnings as reported on IRS Form W-2 G, Form 5754 and/or any other form required by the Internal Revenue Service that reports winnings from gambling, prizes and lottery winnings.

INCOME NOT TAXABLE

- (A) Taxable income shall not include: poor relief, old age pensions or similar benefits received from any government agency, religious or educational organization.
- (B) Unemployment compensation, proceeds of insurance, annuities, workmen's compensation insurance, social security benefits, pensions, compensation for damage for personal injuries and like reimbursements, not including damage for loss of profits, and compensation for damage to property by way of insurance and otherwise.
- (C) Interest and dividends from intangible property, personal earnings of all persons under 18 years of age and active duty military pay and allowances received by members of the Armed Forces of the United States, drill and flight pay of the National Guard, organized reserve and air reserves.
- (D) Income of any charitable, educational, fraternal or other type of nonprofit association or organization enumerated in Section 718.01 of the Revised Code of Ohio which is exempt from payment of real estate taxes.
- (E) Gains from involuntary conversion, cancellation of indebtedness, interest on Federal obligations, and income of the decedent's estate during the period of administration, except income from the operation of a business by the estate.
- (F) Alimony

LOSSES

Net losses incurred in any taxable activity must be reported and are deductible, in the year incurred, to the extent of the net profits from any source included in the return. Net operating losses may be carried forward for three (3) years but may not be offset against wages, salaries, tips, and lottery/gambling winnings.

BUSINESS APPORTIONMENT FORMULA

The business apportionment formula is to be used by corporations, non-resident sole proprietorships, partnerships, professionals and other entities doing business both within and outside the boundaries of the City of Greenville.

A municipal corporation shall be considered as having a taxable situs in such municipal corporation for purposes of municipal income taxation in the same proportion as the average ratio of the following:

- (1) The average original cost of the real and tangible personal property owned or used by the taxpayer in the business or profession in such municipal corporation during the taxable period to the average original cost of all of the real and tangible personal property owned or used by the taxpayer in the business or profession during the same period, wherever situated.
As used in the preceding paragraph, real property shall include property rented or leased by the taxpayer and the value of such property shall be determined by multiplying the annual rental thereon by eight;
- (2) Wages, salaries, and other compensation paid during the taxable period to persons employed in the business or profession for services performed in such municipal corporation to wages, salaries, and other compensation paid during the same period to persons employed in the business or profession, wherever their services are performed, excluding compensation that is not taxable by the municipal corporation under section 718.011 of the Revised Code;
- (3) Gross receipts of the business or profession from sales made and services performed during the taxable period in such municipal corporation to gross receipts of the business or profession during the same period from sales and services, wherever made or performed.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR REVERSE SIDE OF CITY FORM R

SCHEDULE C. PROFIT (OR LOSS) FROM BUSINESS OR PROFESSION

If you operate under the same or different trade names at more than one location, and separate books are kept for each location, a separate copy of the Schedule C should be attached for each location, in which case the amount entered in Line 5 represents the total net profit or loss from all locations. Do not include in this schedule the cost of goods withdrawn for personal use or deductions not connected with the business or profession. Use Statement for cost of goods sold or cost of operations, when applicable.

NOTE: Business losses are not deductible from W-2 income.

SCHEDULE E. INCOME FROM RENTS

This schedule corresponds to the rent schedule of Federal Form 1040. Attach a copy of Federal Schedule E for all Rentals subject to Greenville tax.

NOTE: Rental losses are not deductible from W-2 income on Line 2 of Front Page.

SCHEDULE H. INCOME FROM OTHER SOURCES

Report in this schedule any other income you may have which is subject to Greenville tax. For example, a Greenville resident may be a member of a partnership not located or doing business in Greenville. Such a partnership, as a business entity, is not required to file returns and pay the tax. This Greenville resident, nevertheless, is subject to tax on the income he enjoys from that partnership and must report the income in Schedule H. List fees that are not included as part of the net profits of a trade, business or profession; income from estates, trusts, fees, prizes and partnership income on which the tax has not been paid by the partnership entity.

Note: Losses are not deductible from W-2 income.

SCHEDULE X. RECONCILIATION WITH FEDERAL INCOME TAX RETURN

This schedule is to be used to adjust the Federal net income to the Greenville taxable income. The total of the items listed to the left hand column (A through I as shown on line M) are to be added to the Federal net income. The total of the items listed in the right hand column (N through U as shown on line Z) are to be deducted from the federal net income.
